

22 February 1960<sup>29</sup>

It was a great honor and a real thrill to have the opportunity to read President George Washington's farewell address in the Senate of the United States. His words of counsel and admonition retain their vigor and wisdom today after a century and a half have changed our Republic and the world to ways undreamed in Washington's time. The course he charted has served us well and we are today the great, united, and powerful nation of which he spoke!

Frank E. Moss
Utah