My dear Sir

I am very anxious to render any service to the Govt in any power prior to the meeting of Congress -

From Sandusky I telegraph ed to you this desire in hopes I might be made serviceable in the staff of some Genl Office or some position consistent with my slender knowledge of military duties and with my official duties as a Member -

I wish no pay or emolument and still hope you may assign me some such position as I indicate If you do it I will obey your orders if you do not I will go to Phila or Washington -

I much fear a great disaster at the Capitol affair we are prepared to meet it

Yours Truly
John Starna

Gov. Dennison -
