Baucus Hails Senate Panel's Vote to Block New Cuba Rule

(WASHINGTON, D.C.) U.S. Senator Max Baucus, the ranking member of the Senate Finance Committee, praised the Senate panel on Treasury Appropriations for including a measure to block a Treasury Department rule restricting agricultural sales to Cuba. Baucus, who has introduced bipartisan legislation to reverse the rule, made the following statement:

“The Senate Treasury Appropriations panel’s unanimous adoption of an amendment that would block enforcement of the new rule restricting agricultural sales to Cuba sends a strong message to any regulatory agency that tries to rewrite the law. This new Treasury rule violates both the spirit and the letter of the law, and I applaud my colleagues in the Senate for joining the House of Representatives in standing with American farmers and ranchers.”
