

2/25/1970

I was greatly pleased to have been selected to read Washington's Farewell Address - It is the second time North Dakota has been so honored. Hon. P. J. McCumber read it in 1905.

The message itself is a beautiful piece, and will be one of our enduring documents. It carries a message which has application today - It should be read and responded to often.

John R. Roderick
U.S.S. (N.D.)