CONGRESSIONAL RECORD — SENATE

Mr. DIRKSEN. Mr. President, in line with the sentiment offered by the poet, "Any man's death diminishes me, because I am involved in mankind," so every denial of freedom, every denial of equal opportunity for a livelihood, for an education, for the right to participate in representative government diminishes me.

There is the moral basis for our case. It has been long and tedious; but the mills will continue to grind, and whatever we do here tonight as we stand on the threshold of a historic rollick, those mills will not stop grinding.

So, Mr. President, I commend this bill to the Senate, and in its wisdom I trust that in its measure it will prevail.

I close by expressing once more my gratitude to the distinguished majority leader for the tolerance that he has shown all through this long period of nearly 100 days.

But standing on the pinnacle of this night, looking back, looking around, looking forward, as an anniversary occasion requires, this is the "year that was," and it will be so recorded by the bone pickers who somehow put together all the ingredients of man's journey through time that is history. I am prepared for the vote.

The Acting PRESIDENT pro tempore.

The bill having been read the third time, the question is, Shall it pass? The yeas and nays have been ordered, and the clerk will call the roll.

The legislative clerk called the roll.

The result was announced—yeas 73, nays 27, as follows:

So the bill (H.R. 7152) was passed.

The Acting PRESIDENT pro tempore.

The guests in the galleries will refrain from conversation and comment. The Senate will be in order.

Mr. DIRKSEN. Mr. President, I move that the Senate reconsider the vote by which the bill was passed.

Mr. MANSFIELD. I move to lay that motion on the table.

The motion to lay on the table was agreed to.

Mr. HUMPHREY. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that the bill as amended by the Senate be printed.

The Acting PRESIDENT pro tempore. Without objection, it is so ordered.

LEGISLATIVE PROGRAM—ORDER FOR ADJOURNMENT UNTIL MONDAY

Mr. DIRKSEN. Mr. President, I should like to query the majority leader with regard to the schedule for next week. I would like to know whether the Senate will adjourn until Monday.

Mr. MANSFIELD. Mr. President, in view of the circumstances, there will not be the usual Saturday session.

I ask unanimous consent that at the conclusion of business today, the Senate stand in recess until 12 noon, on Monday next.

The Acting PRESIDENT pro tempore. Without objection, it is so ordered.

Mr. MANSFIELD. Mr. President, for the information of the Senate, in response to the question asked by the distinguished minority leader, it is anticipated that on Monday the Senate will start consideration of the Interior appropriation bill, to be followed, although not necessarily in this order, by the Treasury and Post Office appropriation bill, the atomic energy authorization bill, the National Aeronautics and Space Authorization bill, and, also, for the information of the Senate, state that after consulting with the distinguished minority leader and I hope with the concurrence of the Senate—we would be allowed to pass a number of unobjected-to items on the calendar. They are items which have been cleared. We would like to do it this evening.

The Acting PRESIDENT pro tempore. The Senator from Illinois is recognized.

NATIONAL COMMISSION ON FOOD MARKETING

The Acting PRESIDENT pro tempore. The Chair lays before the Senate a message from the House of Representatives, amending the joint resolution (S.J. Res. 71) to establish a National Commission on Food Marketing to study the food industry and the producer to the consumer, which was, to strike out all after the resolving clause and insert:
