I have been greatly honored to be asked to present to the Senate George Washington's farewell address.

I am especially pleased, due to the fact that I am a direct descendant of George Washington's youngest brother, Charles Washington. My paternal grandmother's maiden name was Martha Virginia Washington and my great-grandfathers, Charles Augustine Washington. He was a great, great, great, great grandson of George's youngest full brother.

Because of the relationship to the Washington family it was a great thrill to present President Washington's farewell address.
