The privilege of being permitted to read George Washington's farewell address is an inspiring experience and singular honor. Every American should study this memorable message. It gives one a renewed sense of pride in and republic. Arousing that wholesome and elevate emotions of patriotism and love of country. The message is an unforfeited and enduring as the life and deeds of the first president.

Herbert C. Humphrey
U.S. Vice President