Every citizen of the United States should consider it a duty to read Washington’s Farewell Address.

[Signature]
Feb. 22, 1796

This great message of George Washington to the people of our country was read before the Senate upon designation of Senator Arthur Vanderburg, President pro tempore of the Senate.

[Signature]
Chopman Pendleton
W. Va., Virginia

Read Feb. 22, 1796 in the Senate of the U.S. pursuant to designation of the Hon. Arthur Vanderburg, Pres. pro tempore of the Senate. This letter to the American people should be forgotten.

[Signature]
Brian M.Mahon
U.S. S. Conn.