SERVICE

Speech/Hearing impaired persons may contact the Federal Relay Service at 1 (800) 877-8339 TTY

POSTING DATE:

September 5, 2017

DEADLINE FOR APPLICATIONS:

September 19, 2017 Applications will NOT be accepted after 11:59 p.m.

The online application can be found in the Employment section of Senate.gov - <http://www.senate.gov/employment>.

All applicants should complete a Secretary of the Senate Application for Employment and attach a cover letter and current resume to the Human Resources Department at the link listed above. Qualified candidates will be contacted if selected for an interview. Do NOT mail. No phone calls please.

VETERANS' PREFERENCE:

Hiring for this position will be governed by the Veterans Employment Opportunity Act of 1998 ("VEOA"), as made applicable by the Congressional Accountability Act of 1995. Pursuant to the VEOA, qualified applicants who are not current employees of the Office of the Secretary of the Senate and who are disabled or who have served on active duty in the Armed Forces during certain specified time periods or in certain military designated campaigns (“veterans”) may be eligible to receive a preference over non-veterans in hiring decisions. Family members of veterans may also be eligible to receive a veterans’ preference if the veteran cannot claim his or her veterans’ preference.

To be eligible for a veterans’ preference, applicants must meet all of the requirements set forth in the VEOA and applicable regulations. Those eligibility requirements are summarized in the Application for Veterans’ Preference, which may be obtained by visiting:

http://www.senate.gov/employment/resources/pdf/SOS_VeteransPreference.pdf.

If claiming a veterans’ preference, an applicant must indicate that he/she is preference eligible on the application or resume and must submit a completed copy of the Application for Veterans’ Preference along with the supporting documentation specified on that form. If the Office of the Secretary of the Senate does not receive the Application for Veterans’ Preference and supporting documentation by the closing date, the applicant’s claim for a veterans’ preference may be denied.

Applicants may obtain a copy of the Office’s Veterans’ Preference in Appointments policy by submitting a written request to vets@sec.senate.gov.

Individuals who are entitled to a veterans’ preference are invited to self-identify voluntarily. This information is intended solely for use in connection with the Office of the Secretary of the Senate’s obligations and efforts to provide veterans’ preference to preference-eligible applicants in accordance with the VEOA. An applicant’s status as a disabled veteran and any information regarding an applicant’s disability, including the applicant’s medical condition and history, will be kept confidential and will be collected, maintained and used in accordance with the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990, as made applicable by section 102(a)(3) of the CAA, 2 U.S.C. §1302(a)(3). An applicant who declines to self-identify as a disabled veteran and/or to provide information and documentation regarding his/her disabled veteran’s status will not be subjected to an adverse employment action, but the individual may be ruled ineligible for a veterans’ preference.

All applicants should submit a Secretary of the Senate Application for Employment (and, if applicable, Application for Veteran’s Preference and supporting documentation specified on that form), cover letter and current resume to the Human Resources Department at the above address. Qualified candidates will be contacted if selected for an interview. Do NOT mail. No phone calls please.

UNITED STATES SENATE
OFFICE OF THE SECRETARY

REFERENCE LIBRARIAN I

Department: Senate Library

Reports to: Head of Reference and Information Services

NATURE OF WORK

The Reference Librarian I is a professional position in the Senate Library. Work involves providing reference, training, and research support services to Senate staff in a timely, confidential, and nonpartisan manner. Work is bound by standard industry guidelines, Secretary of the Senate policies and procedures, the U.S. Senate Handbook, and the Senate Ethics Manual, but requires independent judgment in setting priorities and handling assignments.

ESSENTIAL FUNCTIONS

Provides specialized reference and research assistance to patrons. Responds to a full range of inquiries, including legal and legislative questions, requests for historical materials and statistical data, and complex research involving difficult-to-locate materials using a wide range of subscription databases, Congress.gov, Library collections, and other materials.

Monitors legislative activities and current events to support patron inquiries and requests. Assists in the development and maintenance of the Library collections by reviewing print and electronic resources to recommend materials for acquisition, replacement, or withdrawal. Teaches patrons about research tools through one-on-one or class instruction. Teaches patrons about the services of the Senate Library by conducting tours and leading class demonstrations of research databases. Collaborates with Senate staff on developing search strategies in database and print resources. Maintains knowledge of research tools by attending vendor and library-related classes and webinars.

Presents and promotes Library services to Senate offices. Contributes to Library outreach efforts such as new staff orientations, National Library Week events, Library tours, promotional materials, and Library display cases. Develops and maintains web content for the Senate's public website (Senate.gov), the Senate intranet, and the Library's website.

The statements contained herein reflect general details necessary to describe the principal functions of this class, knowledge and skill typically required and the physical demands and working conditions, but should not be considered an all-inclusive listing of work requirements.

UNITED STATES SENATE
OFFICE OF THE SECRETARY

Maintains current knowledge of the Senate Library's Emergency Action Plan (EAP) and Continuity of Operations (COOP) plan; participates in periodic exercises and drills.

PHYSICAL DEMANDS AND WORKING ENVIRONMENT

Work is performed in an office environment and involves everyday risks or discomforts that requires normal safety precautions when performing the work. Work requires frequent walking, standing, bending, and carrying items up to 25 pounds. This position works on a rotational basis to support the Senate when in session and is therefore subject to the Senate floor schedule, requiring working extended and unscheduled hours periodically as dictated by the Senate.

MINIMUM QUALIFICATIONS

Requires a Master's Degree in Library Science from an ALA-accredited program and one to three years of professional reference experience, including the following knowledge, skills, and abilities:

Ability to select and organize research data for patrons.

Knowledge of the Senate as an institution.

Knowledge of Congress, the legislative process and procedures, and congressional documents.

Knowledge of the federal government, the U.S. legal system, U.S. politics, and U.S. history.

Knowledge of the resources, organization, and classification schemes of the Library of Congress.

Knowledge of software and hardware tools, including web page editing software.

Ability to evaluate print and online research resources.

Ability to work cooperatively and effectively in a team setting, both within the Library and outside of organizational lines.
