DEADLINE FOR APPLICATIONS:

April 15, 2016 Applications will NOT be accepted after 11:59 p.m.

The new online application can be found in the Employment section of Senate.gov - <http://www.senate.gov/employment>.

All applicants should complete a Secretary of the Senate Application for Employment and attach a cover letter and current resume to the Human Resources Department at the link listed above. Qualified candidates will be contacted if selected for an interview. Do NOT mail. No phone calls please.

VETERANS' PREFERENCE:

Hiring for this position will be governed by the Veterans Employment Opportunity Act of 1998 ("VEOA"), as made applicable by the Congressional Accountability Act of 1995. Pursuant to the VEOA, qualified applicants who are not current employees of the Office of the Secretary of the Senate and who are disabled or who have served on active duty in the Armed Forces during certain specified time periods or in certain military designated campaigns ("veterans") may be eligible to receive a preference over non-veterans in hiring decisions. Family members of veterans may also be eligible to receive a veterans' preference if the veteran cannot claim his or her veterans' preference.

To be eligible for a veterans' preference, applicants must meet all of the requirements set forth in the VEOA and applicable regulations. Those eligibility requirements are summarized in the Application for Veterans' Preference, which may be obtained by visiting:

http://www.senate.gov/employment/resources/pdf/SOS_VeteransPreference.pdf.

If claiming a veterans' preference, an applicant must indicate that he/she is preference eligible on the application or resume and must submit a completed copy of the Application for Veterans' Preference along with the supporting documentation specified on that form. If the Office of the Secretary of the Senate does not receive the Application for Veterans' Preference and supporting documentation by the closing date, the applicant's claim for a veterans' preference may be denied.

Applicants may obtain a copy of the Office's Veterans' Preference in Appointments policy by submitting a written request to vets@sec.senate.gov.

Individuals who are entitled to a veterans' preference are invited to self-identify voluntarily. This information is intended solely for use in connection with the Office of the Secretary of the Senate's obligations and efforts to provide veterans' preference to preference-eligible applicants in accordance with the VEOA. An applicant's status as a disabled veteran and any information regarding an applicant's disability, including the applicant's medical condition and history, will be kept confidential and will be collected, maintained and used in accordance with the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990, as made applicable by section 102(a)(3) of the CAA, 2 U.S.C. §1302(a)(3). An applicant who declines to self-identify as a disabled veteran and/or to provide information and documentation regarding his/her disabled veteran's status will not be subjected to an adverse employment action, but the individual may be ruled ineligible for a veterans' preference.

All applicants should submit a Secretary of the Senate Application for Employment (and, if applicable, Application for Veteran's Preference and supporting documentation specified on that form), cover letter and current resume to the Human Resources Department at the above address. Qualified candidates will be contacted if selected for an interview. Do NOT mail. No phone calls please.

SENATE PARLIAMENTARY CLERK

Department: Parliamentarian
Reports to: Senate Parliamentarian

NATURE OF WORK

This is professional, non-partisan, legislative work with responsibility for ensuring consistent and orderly proceedings of the Senate. Work includes assisting the Senate Parliamentarian and staff on and off the Senate floor in responding to legislative and parliamentary inquiries; preparing materials for the Senate's daily proceedings and the Senate Calendar; referring Executive Communications to committees; basic procedural and legislative research; assisting with the preparation of the office's precedential materials for publication; and general administrative tasks as assigned. This position requires a two-year commitment. Work is bound by Senate rules and precedent, legislative history, Statutes, the United States Code, and Secretary of the Senate policies and procedures, but requires independent judgment in setting priorities and handling assignments.

ESSENTIAL FUNCTIONS

Supports the Office of the Senate Parliamentarian with general administrative functions; maintains legislative records; interacts frequently with Senators, staff and the public; answers phones and manages access to the Parliamentarians.

Responds to legislative/parliamentary questions generated by Congressional staff and public; and refers sensitive issues to the Parliamentarian.

Prepares language for resolutions and unanimous consent requests relative to the opening and closing of daily sessions or routine floor procedures for Leadership offices.

Assists Parliamentarians with referring communications to Senate committees for consideration; reviews contents of each document to determine appropriate jurisdiction; and researches Senate precedents and the U.S. Code to determine appropriate jurisdiction.

Assists Parliamentarians in organizing, researching, editing, compiling, writing, and publishing current precedents of the Senate.

Assists the Parliamentarians with delivery of legislative parliamentary material to the Senate Chamber.
