tential inflationary effect upon the econ-yomy or that is so discriminatory. There is no justifiable reason for making loans at interest rates below the current market available to some veterans and denying them to others.
Help to veterans in the field of housing has been most effectively with programs available to all our citizens, vet-ers and nonveterans alike, through the coordinated activities of the Housing and Home Finance Agency. The recent decentralization of loan making by the FHA mortgage-insurance program should make this program available to a far wider segment of the population, thus stimulating private home-building activity to meet the growing needs.
It is my considered judgment that the above-mentioned deficiencies of H. R.
4802 are of a magnitude and importance which preclude my approval of the bill.
